Ambassador Richard Armitage, former Deputy Secretary of State, has served as the Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Affairs and Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for East Asia and Pacific Affairs. In addition, Ambassador Armitage has held a wide variety of high-ranking US diplomatic positions; including Ambassador directing US assistance to the newly independent states of the Soviet Union. Mr. Armitage graduated from the US Naval Academy in 1967 and completed three combat tours in Vietnam. Today, Ambassador Armitage is a founding partner and President of Armitage International, L.L.C.

Mr. Richard Childress is an Asian specialist, with in-depth knowledge of Asian culture and broad experience in national security, foreign policy, economic, and commercial matters regarding Asia. As Director of Asian Affairs on the National Security Council (NSC) staff from 1981-89, he led or participated in each US policy delegation to Vietnam and Laos from 1982-89. After 26 years in the U.S. Army, Mr. Childress retired from government service in 1989. Mr. Childress established a successful DC-based consulting firm, Asian Investment Strategies, engaged by US businesses focused on ASEAN. He later became the League's Senior Policy Advisor and has participated in several League Delegations to Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia.

Mr. Matthew Daley served in the United States Army from 1968 to 1970 and as a Special Agent in the United States Secret Service from 1971 to 1976. Since joining the Foreign Service in 1976, Mr. Daley has had numerous assignments in Washington and overseas. In 1978, he was detailed to the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency. He then served as Special Assistant to the Assistant Secretary of State for East Asian and Pacific Affairs, Director of the Office of Philippine Affairs, and Deputy Chief of Mission of the U.S. Embassies in Bangkok, Thailand, and New Delhi, India. Upon returning to the United States in 1997, Mr. Daley was Deputy Special Representative for implementing the Dayton Peace Accords and Senior Advisor on South Asia. Joining State's Bureau of East Asian and Pacific Affairs as Deputy Assistant Secretary in August, 2001, he became a League Policy Advisor after retiring.

Ambassador David Lambertson was a Foreign Service Officer for 32 years, with assignments in Saigon, Indonesia, Paris, Tokyo, London, Canberra, Seoul, and Bangkok. He was Deputy Secretary of Japanese Affairs, Director of Korean Affairs, and Deputy Assistant Secretary of State with responsibility for Southeast Asia. He was Ambassador to Thailand from 1991-95. In addition to serving as a League Policy Advisor, Ambassador Lambertson currently serves as an adjunct faculty member at the University of Kansas, Claremont-McKenna College, and the Command and General Staff College.

Mr. Rudy de Leon began his career in the federal government in 1975, holding various staff positions in Congress and served as a member of the professional staff and staff director for the US House Armed Services Committee. Mr. de Leon served as the Deputy Secretary of Defense from 2000-01 and, prior to that, served as Undersecretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness and as Undersecretary of the Air Force. Currently, Mr. de Leon is a senior fellow with the National Security and International Policy team at American Progress, focusing on US national security issues and US-China relations.

Mr. Robert “Bud” McFarlane served two combat tours in the US Marine Corps during the Vietnam War. Mr. McFarlane became the Military Assistant to Henry Kissinger at the National Security Council (NSC) from 1973-77. President Ronald Reagan selected Mr. McFarlane to serve in a series of posts, each with increasing spans of responsibility, culminating with his appointment as National Security Advisor. In the private sector, Mr. McFarlane created and became CEO of McFarlane Associates, Inc., an energy and development consultancy.

Ms. Ann Mills-Griffiths has led the National League of POW/MIA Families since August 1, 1978, first as Executive Director and, since August 1, 2011, as Chairman of the Board, retaining CEO responsibilities. She focuses primarily on US government policy, operations, and sustaining the League’s financial ability to achieve accounting objectives. Ms. Mills-Griffiths has led or participated in numerous delegations to Southeast Asia, meeting with senior officials in Vietnam, Laos, Cambodia, and Thailand, and has met with Russian, Chinese, and other diplomats and senior officials in an effort to expedite answers on Vietnam War missing.

Ambassador Charles Salmon was Foreign Policy Advisor to the Commander in Chief, US Pacific Command. He was Chargé d’ Affaires to Laos from 1989 until 1992 at which time he was promoted to Ambassador to Laos. He also served as Director, Office of Philippine Affairs, Office of Thailand and Burma Affairs, and Office of Human Rights in the State Department. He was Deputy Chief of Mission in Rangoon, Burma, and Wellington, New Zealand. He also served in Vienna, Saigon, The Hague, and Manila. Today, Ambassador Salmon is an adjunct Senior Fellow at the East-West Center.

Ambassador Charles Twining is a retired career Foreign Service Officer. His Asian assignments included South Vietnam 1966-68, Thailand 1975-77 (Indochina watcher), and Cambodia 1991-95 (Chief of Mission/Ambassador). He enjoyed a number of African assignments, including as Ambassador to Cameroon and Equatorial Guinea, 1996-98. His most recent short-term posting was to Juba, South Sudan 2014-15. Ambassador Twining served as Foreign Policy Advisor to the US Pacific Command 1998-2001. His Washington assignments at the Department of State included Director of Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia 1988-91, a critical period in the evolution of US relations with those countries. Married with two sons, he enjoys working on the old family farm in northern Maryland.

Ambassador Paul Wolfowitz spent more than three decades in public service working in the administrations of seven different presidents. Most recently, he served as president of the World Bank and Deputy Secretary of Defense. He served as Ambassador to Indonesia from 1986-89, and he was Assistant Secretary of State for East Asia and Pacific Affairs from 1982-86. Ambassador Wolfowitz currently serves as Chairman of the US-Taiwan Business Council. He is also a visiting scholar at the American Enterprise Institute (AEI) where he works on development and national security issues.
