EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

PROCLAMATION

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS: Americans look to our servicemen and women as examples of courage and sacrifice. Whenever Americans are needed to advance the cause of freedom, our men and women in uniform proudly step forward and selflessly endure hardships to defend liberty. We are grateful to all who have served this country, and on POW/MIA Recognition Day, we pay special honor to those who have been prisoners of war and to those who are still missing in action; and

WHEREAS: There are many brave former prisoners of war living among us in Arkansas, many of whom still cope with the physical and emotional aftermath of their captivity. All Americans owe a profound debt of gratitude to these quiet heroes and to the families of those still missing in action; and

WHEREAS: For their courageous defense of our Nation, we remember with deep gratitude those who suffered captivity and those whose fate remains unknown; and

WHEREAS: We acknowledge with eternal appreciation and respect those who paid for our freedom with their own, and we remember with deep sorrow those whose fate has never been resolved;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ASA HUTCHINSON, Governor of the State of Arkansas, by virtue of the authority vested in me by Ark. Code Ann. § 1-5-112, do hereby proclaim September 20th, 2019, as
