

Cindy Lee Stonebraker

Cindy Stonebraker is a resident of Hopkinsville KY. She is the mother of 2 and the very proud grandmother of 1. She is the Recruitment Specialist for the Kentucky New Era Media Group. She is active with the Survivor Outreach Services at Ft. Campbell, a member of the Christian County Chamber of Commerce Military Affairs Committee, a member of the Lions Club of Hopkinsville, a member of Kentucky Remembers, and is an honorary member of Military Officers Association of America (MOAA). She also is active with Association of the United States Army (AUSA)

On October 28, 1968, her father, Lt. Col. Kenneth Stonebraker, left Udorn Airfield, Thailand, on a night reconnaissance mission over North Vietnam, and never returned. He was attached to the 11th TAC Recon Squadron, flying a RF-4C. Growing up, this was an issue that her family didn't deal with. After 43 years of isolation on this issue, she has embarked on a quest for answers regarding her father. In 2012 she attended her first annual meeting with the National League of POW/MIA Families.

In 2015 she was elected to sit on the Board of Directors for the National League of POW/MIA Families in Washington DC, and serves as Secretary, and the Kentucky State Coordinator for the League of Families. She sits on the Education Committee for the National League of Families. She also served as the Communications Chairman for the League's 48th Annual Meeting in DC June 21-24, 2017 in DC.
